

SCHOOL AND CHURCH

—The last three Lord Chancellors of England have all been Sunday-school teachers.

—Harry A. Garfield, son of the President, has accepted a position as teacher in St. Paul's School, C. N. H.

—Rev. Dr. J. P. Newman has been readmitted with great unanimity to the New York diocesan Episcopal Conference.—Ch. Union.

—California papers state that W. Mackay has given $100,000 to the W. Monogue for the erection of a

—The Moravian Seminary for adies at Bethlehem, Pa. was

In 1749 and reorganized in 1786, the century of the latter event celebrated in October.

President William of Johns Hopkins University has made a plan to send students from various colleges to consider whether an inter-collegiate system would save $500,000 a year—$250,000 more than the other $499.50 in looking at it.

J. P. M.

Mark Twain told the Yale students that his usual price reading was $300, but he had been asked by the fifty cents of the other $499.50 in looking at it.

Tracy Thomas

The In the University of Virginia College of Arts and Sciences—the office is held in rotation by three of different denominations—corner-stone of a new chapel has been laid. The chapel service is purely religious; the chapel services are maintained without interest, while the religious education is given in a strictly theological school.—and say.

Virginia State charged in Jux, North Carolina & Baltimore, Maryland.

about gambling at church fairs. The vice will probably continue.

the people are educated up to the point that rallies at fairs will be considered an evil to be frowned upon. In holiday seasons, as in the case of the fair at the Grosses, those who are liable to punishment, and business of gambling is carried on in violation of law, the duty to so require that the offence should be lightly passed over, but should be noted." — N. Y. Tribune.

ammedan inhabitants seem to appropriate the benefit of a school tra-

[illegible]

for a doctor?" Before he could give his answer to his inquiry some

[illegible]

—They were young and rowdy although the minute-hand

ing to twelve o'clock, they
the porch gazing at the star Jupiter, dear, isn't it?" she
"Yes, pet, and that's Sirius
plied, pointing to another a you Sirius?" she cooed. He several times. Then he point and said: "That's Mars, do
that's po's," she whispered,
step sounded inside, and I
man hadn't scooted he would
more stars than he ever d
Her pa wears a 12th with a Herpa Post

